

LARKEN ASSOCIATES TAPS DAVID IACOBUCCI AS CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

BRANCHBURG, NJ, September 26, 2023 — Larken Associates, a regional leader in real estate building, development and management, announces the promotion of David Iacobucci to Chief Financial Officer.

Iacobucci, who previously served as the Chief Investment Officer with Larken Associates, brings over 30 years of commercial real estate experience to his new role. Building upon his experience leading the firm's investment strategy, Iacobucci will work closely with President and Chief Executive Officer David Gardner to oversee the company's overall financial operations. His work will play a pivotal role in driving continued profitability as well as the growth of the firm's expansive real estate portfolio of multifamily, office, industrial, and retail properties for lease.

"Our highly experienced leadership team has always been vital to our success," said Gardner. "With David assuming the role of CFO, we have positioned ourselves to continue to improve our business while continuing the meaningful work for the communities we operate within. I am thrilled to leverage his expertise as we continue to guide the company forward."

Iacobucci added, "Throughout my 30 years working in the industry, I've been fortunate to work on countless real estate projects, but Larken's community-focused development philosophy has helped me produce the most impactful work I've done in my career. I am thrilled to step into this new role and work with our team to continue to grow our capabilities and portfolio in the years to come."

Prior to joining Larken Associates in October of 2022, Iacobucci served as Senior Investment Officer for Bergman Real Estate Group, a New Jersey-based family-owned real estate firm specializing in the acquisition, ownership, management, leasing and construction supervision of office buildings and commercial properties. He also served as Senior Vice President of Vision Real Estate Partners, an award-winning New Jersey-based real estate investment, development, and asset management company; Managing Director of Woodmont Industrial Partners, one of the leading developers of industrial real estate in the region; Division Manager of The Baker Companies, a Westchester-based premier real estate organization; and Vice President of Asset Management of The Schultz Organization, a fully-integrated real estate services company.
